Your challenge:

Participate actively in solving the legal issues of the case!
Do so either by presenting the arguments as an attorney, by leading the procedure as the judge or by rendering the verdict as a member of the jury.

Do not hesitate to come. All necessary information will be provided and you will receive help from experienced lawyers.

The case:

A father is suing the New Columbia County School District for damages after his son died from a heart attack caused by excessive steroid use.

The deceased, Chris Wilkins, had bought the steroids from Dan Peters, a junior, inside Lincoln High School. The Plaintiff alleges negligence, while the school denies liability.

How is the jury going to decide?
