Adamawa Conference - Call for Papers

January 28th, 2019

Dear Colleague,

it is our pleasure to invite you to the first Adamawa conference which will be held at the Department of Anthropology and African Studies at the Johannes Gutenberg University in Mainz. It aims at bringing together linguists working on Adamawa languages, providing a platform for discussing ongoing research. 20 minute talks with a 10 minute discussion can be held. Please provide a working title or the topic of the talk when registering, an abstract is not needed. Talks should present (ongoing) research on one or several Adamawa languages that can comprise topics such as lexicon, phonology, morphology and syntax but are not limited to these.

Traveling expenses, accommodation and catering can be provided for active conference participants (upon budget approval).

There will be a possibility of publishing the proceedings of the conference (again, upon budget approval).

Date: September 9th – September 11th (Monday – Wednesday)

Registration deadline: February 22nd, 2019

Location: Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz, Germany

Website: <https://www.blogs.uni-mainz.de/fb07-adamawa/adamawa-conference-2019/>

Please confirm your participation by writing to adamawa@uni-mainz.de with the following information:

- Name, degree and academic affiliation
- Topic / Title of your talk
- Your starting point and an estimate of your travel expenses if compensation is needed
- Accommodation for two nights if needed

We are looking forward to an interesting conference!

Kind regards,

Dr. S. Littig
