

Biographical Dates of Dr. Sandra Petermann

- since 05/2008 Head of Registra's Offices of the Department 09 (Chemistry, Pharmaceutical Sciences, and Geosciences)
- 12/2006 Dissertation Prize of the Johannes Gutenberg
University of Mainz
- 06/2006 Award of the International Peace Medallion of Verdun
- 06/2006 Dissertation
Subject of the PhD: "Rituals make Places.
Commemoration of the World Wars in France"
- since 03/2005 Assistant Lecturer at the Institute of Geography of the Johannes Gutenberg University of Mainz
- 03/2002-03/2005 Scholarship as part of the postgraduate lecture
"Space and Ritual" of the DFG at the Johannes Gutenberg University of Mainz
- 12/2001 12/2001: Graduation with a Diplom in Geography.
Subject of master's thesis: "Foreigners in the Medina of Marrakech. Gentrification or Neocolonialism?"
- 10/1994-12/2001 Student of Geography with minors in Ethnology and Political Economics at the Johannes Gutenberg University of Mainz
- 10/1993-09/1994 Student of History at the University of Bayreuth
- 1984-1993 Student at Graf Münster High School in Bayreuth
- 1973 Born in Dreieich/Langen, Germany

